

ONE DAY NATIONAL SEMINAR

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Dr. D.T. Chary, Academic Guidance Officer, CCE, Hyderabad was the Chief Guest of the Seminar

Dr. G. Raja Reddy Principal of the college was presided over the seminar

Prof. G. Anjaiah, Professor of History, Department of History, University College of Arts and Social Sciences, Osmania University, Hyderabad.

The Department of History conducted a National Seminar on "Glimpses of Telangana History" on 18-11-2022 in Room No.85 RUSA Building. The programme started with a welcome address by Smt. E. Anitha, Assistant Professor of History. Dr. G. Raja Reddy, principal of the college, presided over the seminar. Dr. D.T. Chary, Academic Guidance Officer, CCE, Hyderabad, was the Chief Guest of the Seminar. Prof. G. Anjaiah, Professor of History, Department of History, University College of Arts and Social Sciences, Osmania University, Hyderabad, was the keynote speaker. He delivered a lecture on "Society, Economy, and Culture: Medieval Telangana (1000–1687 CE)". Another speaker is Dr. G. Chandra Reddy Reader (retired) in History, Department of History and Tourism, SSRJ Arts & Science College, Khammam. Dr. N. Mallaiiah, Incharge, Department of History, was given a brief report about the seminar. In this seminar, Dr. K. Ram Reddy introduced the keynote speaker, Dr. K. Ram Reddy, and E. Anitha introduced the second speaker, Dr. G. Chandra Reddy.

Finally, Dr. K. Ram Reddy proposed a vote of thanks and concluded the seminar. In this seminar, IQAC coordinator Dr. B. Ramesh, S. Kamalakar, Incharge Dept. of Political Science, Dr. G. Shyam, Incharge Dept. of Economics, Dr. Madhusudan Reddy, Assistant Professor of Political Science, and other faculty members and students participated.

Dr. G. Chandra Reddy Reader (retired) in History, Department of History and Tourism, SSRJ Arts & Science College, Khammam.

