

WOMEN EMPOWERMENT

2021-22

KAKATIYA GOVERNMENT COLLEGE, HANUMAKONDA TELANGANA STATE

ONE DAY SEMINAR ON WOMEN EDUCATION ISSUES & CHALLENGES

03.01.2022

The Principal Dr. K. Mallesham addressing the students in the Seminar on “Women Education: Issues and Challenges” on 03.01.2022

The Vice Principal Sri. S. Ganapathi Rao explaining the history of Women Education in India

Ch. Saikumar BA II year explaining the role of Smt. Savitri bai in promoting education for girls

Smt. Sarala Jhansi, Assistant Professor of Economics explaining the challenges for girls education in deprived sections of the society

Dr. A. Madhusudhan Reddy, Assistant Professor of Political Sciences discussing the views of Dr. B. R. Ambedhakar on women education

Faculty members and Students participating in the Seminar

Dr. B. Nainadevi, Coordinator Women Empowerment Cell explaining the issues in Women education

Presentation of Smt. Savithri bai drawing to Principaly by Vinay

The Principal Dr. K. Mallesham presenting a jute bag to Ch. Niharika, BA HPP II year for her paper presentation in the Seminar

AWARENESS PROGRAMME
On
GENDER INEQUALITY IN INDIA
(National Women's Day Celebrations)
14.02.2022

Dr. P. Sailu, Assistant Professor of Telugu explaining the Patriotic Society's Social customs, beliefs and practices and Women inequality in India on 14.02.2022 on the eve of National Women's Day

Dr. B. Nainadevi, Coordinator of Women Empowerment Cell explaining the reasons for less access to education and employment, under-representation in political positions, poorer health and nutrition than men, and the most obvious violence against women.

A. Venkanna, Assistant Professor of Mathematics discussing the Gender related violence in the society.

Dr. K. Sunitha, Assistant Professor of Chemistry and Member of WEC explaining Women's unpaid work and discrimination within the family as well as in the society.

Sri. Masood Ahmad, Assitant Professor of Physics stressing the importance of access to Women education for women empowerment

K. Srinivas, Assistant Professor of History explaining the Constitutional Safeguards for Women

SYMPOSIUM
ON
INDIA'S MOST INSPIRATIONAL WOMEN WRITERS
15.02.2022

Dr. B. Nainadevi, Coordinator, Women Empowerment Cell explaining the role of Women writers in exposing the gender related issues

Dr. E. Satyanarayana, Assistant Professor of English explained the literary works of Toru Dath a young lady lived for only 21 years, she was highly proficient in Bengali, English, French, and Sanskrit, and could seamlessly translate between them.

Mahinoor Fathima, B.SC II year, discussed the apprehension and humiliations received by the Women Writers for questioning the gender bias in the society

Dr. A. Madhusundhan Reddy, Assistant Professor of Political Science made a book review of God of Small things and discussed Arundhati Roy's view and how she tried to illustrate the distinctions that Indian culture makes between people who were born in various circumstances and the rights that everyone is entitled to simply by virtue of being a person, regardless of gender or class.

Smt. G. Chandrakala, Assistant Professor of Telugu discussed the literary works of Smt. Volga and explained the ideology of her and how her works initiated debates across the nation on feminism

Smt. Sudha Madhuri Assistant Professor of Telugu explained the literary works of Yaddanapudi Sulochana Rani (A famous Telugu Novelist) and explained how her writings influenced the women

Sri. Manojar Samley Assistant Professor of English explained the writings of Sarojini Devi Naidu

Students receiving the prizes for their presentation in the seminar

WORKSHOP ON WOMEN'S UNPAID WORK: A NEVER ENDING AND THANKLESS CYCLE

07.03.2022

The Women Empowerment Cell organized a Workshop on Women's Unpaid Work: A Never Ending and Thankless Cycle on 07.03.2022 in the Seminar Hall. The objective of the workshop is to make the participants to be empathetic towards the unpaid work of women. The Workshop was started with the opening remarks and introduction by Dr. B. Nainadevi, Coordinator of Women Empowerment Cell.

The Principal Dr. K. Mallesham analyzed the unpaid works of Women and how their works are underestimated by the society. He pointed out the humiliations faced by the women.

The Resource Person Dr. G. Renuka, IQAC Coordinator, Pingle Government Degree College, (Autonomous) Waddepally explained the invisible work of Women in household activities. She mentioned that invisible labour represent the work done by the women to support the family, but is unrecognized and un remunerated.

This unpaid work includes all types of activities such as caring of children, elders, disabled persons, managing household activities; cooking, cleaning and helping in production etc.

B. Sunitha BA III year explained that the proportion of “unpaid work per day is far higher for women than men

The Students prepared a Rangoli depicting the logo of Gender equality

Pushpa, Sweeper receiving a gift from the Principal Dr. K. Mallesham for her services in the college for 25 years

Ramanamma receiving a gift from Dr. G. Renuka for her services as an outsourcing employee in the college

TRIBUTE TO SAVITRIBAI PHULE

10.03.2022

The Women Empowerment Cell conducted an awareness programme on Women Education in connection with the Death Anniversary of Smt. Savithri bai Phule. The students and faculty members offered floral tribute the legendary person on 10.03.2022.

The Principal Dr. K. Mallesham, Women Empowerment Coordinator Dr. B. Nainadevi, WEC members and students participated in the programme.

CREATING AWARENESS ON MENSTRUAL HYGIENE

27.04.2022

Dr. B. Nainadevi Coordinator, Women Empowerment Cell explaining the Social taboos and blind beliefs of the people on Menstrual cycle and how they lower the status of Women on 27.04.2022

Dr. B. Nainadevi Coordinator, Women Empowerment Cell creating awareness on Menstrual hygiene by distributing the Sanitary pads to the Girl Students on 27.04.2022