Free coaching for JAM-2022 at KGC

DC CORRESPONDENT
HANAMKONDA, JAN. 5

The Chemistry department at Kakatiya Government College (KGC) here on Wednesday started free coaching for the underprivileged students to help them get admissions to the Joint Admission Test (JAM) for M.Sc courses in prestigious institutions like Indian Institute of Science, IIT and NIT.

The free coaching for JAM-2022 was inaugurated by associate professor of Chemistry at NIT, Warangal, D. Kashinadh, at the college premises in the KGC here.

He said students who will get admissions in any centrally funded institutions like IISc, IITs, NITs and central universities will get an exposure to world-class research laboratories and modern instruments like NMR and Mass spectrometers. This will give them an opportunity to interact with scientists from different countries.

The students will also get handsome packages in campus placement drives, he said.

Chairing the inaugural function, principal of the Kakatiya government college K. Mallesham appreciated the efforts of the Chemistry faculty for organising the free coaching classes.

Programme coordinator and Head of Chemistry B. Ramesh said that in view of the Covid-S19 pandemic, the classes would be conducted both offline and online. The classes will be held for 35 days until February 9.

The classes are designed in such a way that the students can also crack the forthcoming central universities Common Entrance Test (CUCET) conducted by the National Testing Agency (NTA).
