ABOUT MAHABUBNAGAR:

Formerly known as Rukmammamet and Palamoor, it was named as Mahabubnagar on 4 December 1890 in Honour of Mir Mahabub Ali Khan, Asaf Jah VI, the Nizam of Hyderabad (1869–1911). It has been the Headquarter of the District since 1883. The Golconda Diamonds, including the famous Kohinoor Diamond allegedly came from Mahaboobnagar District.

The Town of Mahabubnagar enfolds Historical Pillalamarri & Manayamkonda to its tourist credit. ABOUT THE COLLEGE:

MVS Government Arts & Science College, a sterling landmark of higher education in the District of Mahabubnagar, was established in the year 1965 by the peerless efforts of Sri Pallerla Hanumantha Rao and other elite of the Mahabubnagar town with a prime motive of ensuring quality education within the reach of the poor and the downtrodden rural students hailing from all the corners of the District.
