The library is fully automated with ILMS Soul 2.0 (Software for University Libraries) and it will be updated to SOUL 3.0 soon.

The N-List programme of INFLIBNET subscription is renewed, by which students and staff members will be given access to more than 1,99,500 e-books and 6,000 e-journals.

Among the facilities available at the library are a digital library wing with 24 computers and internet access, as well as a well-ventilated reading hall with reference books.

The library has a collection of over 18,000 books in various disciplines.

Our college subscribes to competitive journals, weekly, monthly, fortnightly periodicals, and daily newspapers, all of which help students prepare for competitive exams. Apart from the general library, faculty and students can borrow books from departmental libraries.
