

GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE : NAKREKAL NALGONDA (DIST), TELANGANA

The Nakrekal Village is located in the Nalgonda District on National Highway 65. Government started this college in the Academic Year 2008-09 with just 45 students in a small Government Primary School. The institution started with Degree Courses in Arts, Sciences and Commerce groups. The Government Degree College campus is sharing with the primary school students; it means the primary school & the Government Degree College is running in one small campus.

OBJECTIVE

- To provide an opportunity to the rural poor and the underprivileged sections of this region to pursue higher education.
- To develop discipline, character and inculcate human values and scientific outlook.
- To provide training for the all round development of the students

VISION

- To provide value based education which ensures good citizenship, resourcefulness, service mindedness and attain higher level of access, equity and excellence in the higher education system with greater efficiency, transparency, accountability and responsiveness.

MISSION

- To improve confident levels of students.
- To enhance self-worth of students particularly rural background students.
- To help in seeking right employment.
- To cultivate moral human values.