

3.3.1: Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the last five years.

Response:

The College organizes a number of extension activities to promote institute community association to sensitizes the students towards community needs to bring communal transformation in surrounding rural communities.

The students actively participate in social activities leading to their over all development. The College runs effectively National Service Scheme (NSS). The college motivates students to participate in extension service through 1 NSS unit At present, the strength of NSS unit is of 50 Volunteers, one programme officer and more than 25 Volunteers from one NSS unit. Each Unit check out an action plan at the being of the academic Year and executive it by conducting regular camps in the college and special camps in a neighbouring village. They conducted various extension programmes during their seven days stay for the benefit of villagers. Every year the College selects a village and organizes a camp for seven days and takes up cleanliness village, survey and other constructive works during the 2018-19 year. The NSS Volunteers have organized camps neighbouring Village was, Panjugula. Several notes worthy activities were carried out by NSS volunteers, which include house hold survey , seasonal deseases ,swatch bharath , clean and green ,digital banking and awareness program on fire etc.