

5.4.1: There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services

Response:

The Alumni Association

- The College has an Alumni Association
- The members of the Alumni are eminent personalities from different walks of life.
- The Alumni Association has been rendering advisory service and extends their cooperation for the development of the college

It is proposed to institute a few scholarships for meritorious students to encourage them